PRESIDENT'S FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE ADVISORY BOARD

February 2, 1966

Honorable W. F. Raborn
Director of Central Intelligence
Langley, Virginia

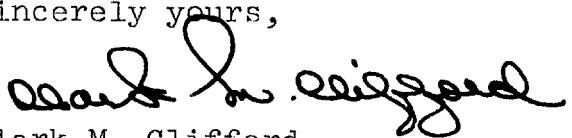

Dear Red:

*ER 66-365 I acknowledge with thanks your thoughtful letter of January 26 setting forth background data concerning the CIA Memorandum entitled "Hanoi's Reaction to the Bombing Lull," which was discussed briefly with you at the last meeting of the Board.

Your review of the circumstances attending the production of the Memorandum is appreciated.

The attention of the other Board members will be invited to your letter for I am sure that they will wish to have your views in mind as the Board continues its practice of examining periodically the evaluation and estimative functions of our foreign intelligence agencies.

Sincerely yours,

Clark M. Clifford
Chairman

Dear Red:

* 66-410

I acknowledge with appreciation your letter of January 29 wherein you comment upon the intelligence effort against Communist China in terms of arrangements now in effect for (a) coordinating the collection and collation of information, and (b) formulating substantive intelligence evaluations of the data collected.

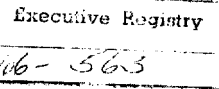

Your letter will of course be called to the attention of the other Board members.

I am pleased that you found your meeting with the Board last week to be helpful to you in the performance of your responsibilities.

Sincerely,

Clark M. Clifford
